- That on or about this Court issued an Order to Reduce Sanctions to a Judgment.
- 5. That on or about Intervenor's filed their Motion to Stay Reduction to Judgment and the Enforcement of the Order of Expense Award ("Motion to Stay").
- 6. That Intervenor's evidenced good faith and a basis for a stay by indicating in their Motion to Stay that they are prepared to post an appeal bond or a letter of credit.
- That on or about Attorney filed her Response to Intervenor's Motion to Stay ("Response").
- 8. That, in Attorney is Response, she indicates that "[o]n is counsel for sent an email to counsel for the isolate identifying the amount of a bond that would be needed for isolate to agree to a stay." (paragraph 8, Attorney 's Response).
- 9. That Attorney presumedly, included this statement to show her willingness to work with Intervenor's, but this is simply not the case.
- 10. That, in fact, the email received from Attorney and a set of set of
- 11. That, clearly, Attorney had no intention of working out an agreement with Intervenor's, but instead, sent an unreasonable demand and then attempted to spin it to the Court as Attorney was acting in good faith but the Intervenor's refused to work with her.

- 12. That, in addition to the Response, Attorney also filed two (2) Verified Motions for Proceeding Supplemental and Notice and Interrogatories to Garnishee-Defendant ("Motion for Proceeding Supplemental") after Intervenor's filed their Motion to Stay.
- That Attorney 's Motion's for Proceeding Supplemental are premature for two reasons.
- 14. That, first, there is no indication that Intervenor's are unwilling or unable to pay the attorney fee award if this matter is not reversed on appeal.
- 15. That, to the contrary, Intervenor's Motion to Stay indicated their willingness to post an appeal bond or letter of credit.
- 16. That, second, the award is being appealed, and as such, has the potential to be reversed.
- That, as has long been held, "a reversal of the underlying judgment nullifies the proceedings supplemental." Lewis v. Rex Metal Craft, Inc., 831 N.E.2d 812 (Ind. Ct. App. 2005).
- 18. That, as such, it would be in contradiction to the promotion of judicial economy to hold a proceedings supplemental as same could become moot depending on the outcome of the appeal, as well as result in the second needing to then bring proceedings to disgorge money from Attorney second if they prevail on appeal.

19. That Intervenor's respectfully request a stay of enforcement of the award pending the outcome of the appeal, as same promotes judicial economy and is within this Court's authority pursuant to Indiana Trial Rule 62(D).

20. That Intervenor's are willing to post the entire award amount of $27,614.78 with the Clerk of the Court pending the appeal.

WHEREFORE, Intervenor's, in person and by Counsel, Bryan Ciyou, respectfully requests this Court stay enforcement of the award pending appeal, recognize that Intervenor's will post the full award amount of $27,614.78 with the Clerk of the Court during the pendency of the appeal, and for all other relief just and proper in the premises.

Respectfully Submitted,
